

TELLS STORY OF
ANCONA SINKINGDr. Cecile L. Greil of New York City Relates Harrowing Experience in Disaster.

SUBMARINE HAD AUSTRIAN FLAG

American Positively Identifies It—Saved Herself Through Gymnastic Ability.

Paris, Nov. 12, (6.35 p. m.)—Passengers aboard the Italian liner Ancona were compelled to seek safety in the boats while the steamer was subjected to a rannade from an Austrian submarine, according to a graphic story of the sea tragedy told by Dr. Cecile L.
Greil of New York, to the Havas correspondent at Ferryville. The American woman escaped only through her gymnastic ability. She tried vainly to find a place in two boats, but there was no room for her. She saved herself by dropping from the deck into a launch which already was in the sea.
Her maid was killed in their cabin by a gunshot.

Dr. Greil's story indicates that the torpedo which sank the Ancona to the bottom was not fired until the steamer had been riddled by shots from the side of the submarine.

Her Maid is Killed.

"I was in the dining room of the first class passengers," said Dr. Greil, "chatting with some of the passengers when we heard the boom of a cannon.
There was great excitement on deck and men were running here and there.
I asked the ship's doctor what was happening and he replied that he did not know. Then I went on deck myself. I saw through a light fog a submarine about a hundred yards distant.
It was equipped with two cannon, fore-ward and aft, which were being fired rapidly. I went down to my cabin to get my papers and there found my maid who pleaded with me to save her. A cannon shot cut short our conversation. A shell entered the vessel through the porthole and killed my maid. I took my valise and small handbag containing valuables, after putting on my hat and coat and went up to the deck with a life belt.

Jumped to Life Boat.

"Boats were being lowered, all completely filled. I sought to get into one of them and was told there was no more room. I went to another and received the same response. I then crossed the deck and saw a launch about. This contained the chief engineer, Carlo Lombardi, two doctors and other first-class passengers, some of the women and members of the crew. I asked Lombardi to be allowed to get in.
"Come on," he said at the same time grasping the side of the steamer to prevent the small boat from moving.

"I gauged well the height which separated me from the boat and being well trained in gymnastics, I didn't hesitate to let myself fall into the launch, landing at the place designated.
During all this time the submarine did not cease bombarding the Ancona, not paying the slightest attention to the women, children and men trying to get away. At this moment the submarine was very close to us. The fog lifted and we could clearly distinguish the Austrian flag which was new.

Ship Resisted Cannon Well.

"The Ancona resisted the cannonade well. Many of the shots entered above the water line and the holes caused by others were too small to admit much water as the sea was very calm.
To finish the work the submarine discharged a torpedo and the vessel began to sink.

"Some hours afterwards we encountered a heavily laden boat which was leaking. We took aboard five women and four children in order to lighten it. We then took it in tow, not per-

GLASS OF SALTS
CLEANS KIDNEYSIf Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink
Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will see fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

FIGHTING TO SAVE
JOSEPH HILLSTROM

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn.

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, best known of all I. W. W. women leaders in this country, is putting forth an unusual effort to save Joseph Hillstrom—better known as Joe Hill, the I. W. W. poet—from execution at the hands of a firing squad in the penitentiary at Salt Lake City on Nov. 19. "Money is coming in from all over the country to save an innocent man," she announced a few days ago.

mitting more passengers to crowd into our boat.

Captain Aid to Situation.

"Lombardi did his best to reassure the unfortunates under his care, most of whom were in tears, telling them all would be well if they heeded his advice. His energetic attitude prevented a panic and finally brought about order. I did all I could to encourage the women and children, who continued their cries of grief.

"When the sun disappeared we saw a black spot on the horizon and all the survivors became greatly excited.
It was not another submarine, but the steamer Pluton which had seen our signals and rescued us about 7 o'clock in the evening. Later it headed for Bizeria after having circled the vicinity of the spot where the Ancona was torpedoed and rescued other survivors who were in boats. The Pluton's captain placed the crew at the disposal of the survivors to aid those who were suffering. I did everything possible in the way of first aid to the wounded.

"All these wounded men except those saved by the Pluton remained on board on the Ancona and went down with her.

"We arrived at Bizeria about 11 o'clock but remained aboard the Plu-ton, the officers placing their cabins at our disposal. At 8 o'clock the next morning we reached the arsenal at Sidi Ah Dallas, where a temporary hospital was erected for us. Here we were able to rest. I will continue to give my services to the survivors and aid the physicians."

Dr. Greil was on her way to her home in New York. She had been visiting the Russian consul and his family at Bari, Italy.

Among the Ancona passengers at Ferryville is Marquis Serra, who was wounded in the foot by a projectile.
